Dear Sir,

By failing to comply with the notice sent to you on 20th February, 1968, requiring you to submit yourself for medical examination in accordance with the National Service Act you have rendered yourself liable to a penalty as provided by the Act.

The attached is a final notice requiring you to attend for examination and, if it is not complied with, action may be taken against you under the Act without further warning. If there should be any reason which prevents you from attending for the examination as requested, please contact me by telephone or advise me by return mail.

Yours faithfully,

(K.J. ELLIOTT)
Secretary
